Those who enjoy working on hand created items of warmth to share with others as a way of sharing God's love, please consider joining us.

Pot Luck Update

The next Pot Luck will be on Sunday, May 5th. and hosted by Susan Williams. The Packers will be out of town so please help Susan any way you can.

Blessing Box Update

A few Sundays ago, a gentleman stopped by the Church to personally thank us for providing food for a family known to him. Because of your generous donations and financial support, the Blessing Box continues to provide food and other supplies for the needy. The Cold Weather Shelters are closing in May and June and the city of Anchorage expects up to 900 homeless people will be unsheltered. That will definitely impact the need for food and other supplies for our Blessing Box. We welcome all your donations, particularly high protein items such as peanut butter, tuna fish, sardines, Chef Boyardee, Vienna sausage, chili, granola bars, etc. Canned soups, vegetables, fruits and beans, especially with flip tops are great. The list of needs is great and there are some who bring food every Sunday and some who often put food in the box. Your financial donations are greatly appreciated and allows us to shop for food as well.

THE GENEROUS WILL THEMSELVES BE BLESSED FOR THEY SHARE THEIR FOOD WITH THE POOR. PROVERBS 22-9

Savanna Grace Horton, Tom & Vicki Packer's granddaughter, will graduate on May 3rd from Rheinhardt University in Georgia. She majored in Psychology with two minors, Sports Studies and Research of Social Sciences. She also played volleyball all four years. She has applied for a Master's Program for this fall.

Christopher Thomas Horton, Tom & Vicki Packer's grandson, will graduate on May 14th from the Alaska Vocational Technical Center (AVTEC) in Seward with a certificate in Information Technology. He has accepted employment with Microcom Communications here in Anchorage
